 - A. The judge must inform the exhibitor immediately at the conclusion of the class that a placement was not awarded.
 - B. Awards and/or ribbons are not to be presented to any dog whose placement is withheld.
 - C. Judges may also award lower placement to dogs not of caliber to earn a 1st place win.
2. The judge has the right to split or divide classes, when considered necessary.
3. The judge must see that all handlers gait or walk their dog.
4. Judges should give equal time in examining each dog they are judging.
5. Judges should not open the dog's mouth to examine its bite. He/she should ask the handler to do so.
6. The judge should use hands to go over all dogs to check bone structure and conformation.
7. The judge has the right to order dogs to be moved back from the show ring so the dogs being shown are not disturbed.
8. In judging the class, the judge may use some means of attracting the attention of a particular dog for inspection or comparison.
9. Judges must be willing to accept the responsibilities of discussing in brief their decisions if asked to do so by the owner or handler, prior to the next class being called. A judge may be called upon to explain their decision on any dog after the show is over and the winners are announced. The judge does have the right to refuse however.

10. A judge may dismiss any dog that is overly aggressive toward him/herself, or another competitor. A judge may also dismiss any dog that is out of control or becoming a nuisance in the ring.

11. When Best of Show or Best of Breed is chosen, the Judge is encouraged to give a short critique of the dogs, with an explanation of their decision.

12. The Judge must judge a show from beginning to end. He may not step out of the ring and be replaced by another judge for any reason except illness, accident, or some other extenuating circumstance that directly concerns him/her. If a Judge is unable to finish their judging assignment, the organization sponsoring the show must authorize another Judge to take over the remainder of the show.
